POST EVENT REPORT

Dr. Sai Charan, Senior Lecturer in the Department of Conservation Industry and Endodontics, conducted an Audio-Visual Enhancement Training Program for Interns and first-year postgraduate students. The program aimed to provide essential skills in using audio-visual aids effectively. Covering types of aids, presentation creation tips, and hands-on practice, participants found the session highly informative. Dr. Sai Charan's expertise and interactive approach were well-received, with attendees eager for more advanced workshops in the future. The training aligns with the department's commitment to modern communication tools for students in the field.
