2. World no tobacco day 2017:

World no tobacco day is observed around the world every year on 31st May and is intended to encourage abstinence from all forms of tobacco consumption and awareness of its hazards around the world. The WHO theme differing every year designated its theme as "Tobacco – Threat to Development" for 2017. The students and staffs of Mahe Institute of Dental Sciences and Hospital, who rendered their service for the cause, observed this day with zeal. Three departments shouldered together for this venture: Dept. of Oral Medicine and Radiology, Dept. of Oral Pathology and Department of Public Health Dentistry. The event was inaugurated by the chief guest – chief dental surgeon, Mahe Government General Hospital, Dr. Satheesh B, Deputed by Deputy Director of Health, Mahe. Dr. Satheesh also administered NO TOBACCO PLEDGE to all staff and students of Mahe. Vice Principal, Dr. Raj A.C, presided the function by addressing the participants consisting of nearly 300 students and 10 staffs. Dr. Seby J Gardens, Head of the Department of Public Health Dentistry welcomed the gathering. Dr. Nikhil Raj, Senior Lecturer in Oral Medicine, delivered the key note lecture depicting the ill effects of smoking and tobacco. All applauded the event. Team of doctors and staffs, through models, posters, audio visual display explained the hazardous effects of tobacco and a key decision to initiate a tobacco cessation clinic for counseling patients was undertaken. Tobacco affects 7 million people every year, out of which India accounts to nearly one fifth. It's been done with the hope that every health care professional plays a major role in curbing the effects caused by tobacco and by working together you can beat tobacco, protect health, reduce poverty and promote development. Ultimate goal of this event was to protect the present and future generations not only from the consequences of using tobacco but also against social, environmental scourges of tobacco use.
